An energy-efficient garage makes a difference

During the winter, perhaps you walked into your garage and noticed it was much colder than inside your house. Whether attached to your home or not, an extremely cold garage can indicate a poorly insulated door. And as warmer temperatures approach, it might be time to consider a new temperature-regulating door.

Energy-efficient doors are the best way to keep your garage cool in the summer and warm in the winter. Like our Designer Class Collection, insulated doors are made with three layers (instead of the standard single layer) to keep your garage temperate.

Our door design experts are always available for a free consultation to determine which insulated door is right for your home. Schedule online or call today!

Are you interested in energy-efficient doors? Head to page 14 of our catalog and check out the Designer Class Collection, our most popular and energy-efficient models!

Free expert help is just a call away!

With hundreds of design and color options to choose from, it can be overwhelming to find your perfect garage door.

Luckily, there are helpful, experienced door design experts exclusively from Precision ready to walk you through your options. Each door designer is brimming with knowledge and design inspiration and ready to offer expert advice. They know colors, designs, styles, and stock like the back of their hand.

And they're always just a phone call away! Make an appointment with one of Precision's door design experts, who will come out to your home, free of charge, to help you design the garage door of your dreams. This unique service is hard to come by in the garage door industry – and the few companies that offer it charge a hefty service fee for their time.

Call your local Precision to schedule a free appointment with a door designer today!
